San Diego PGA Champion Set to Play in Charity Golf Outing

SAN DIEGO, Ca., June 21st, 2013 - North County Health Services (NCHS) is excited to announce former PGA Tour Champion and current Champions Tour player Scott Simpson, a native San Diegan, will be participating in the Fore for Kids IX Golf Classic set for August 6th at The Crosby at Rancho Santa Fe.

Scott Simpson is “on tee” to conduct a skills clinic for high-level sponsors participating in the outing and will play with Grant, Hinkle & Jacobs, the title sponsor. “We are thrilled Scott will be playing in our outing which will raise funds to help hundreds of children for years to come” remarks Stacy Rungaitis, Director of Fund Development at North County Health Services and organizer of the Fore for Kids IX Golf Classic. Proceeds from the golf outing will go to expanding services and programs at the new NCHS Mission Mesa Campus in Oceanside, which provides pediatric, women’s health and dental services to uninsured and underinsured children and their families. The new pediatric health center is expected to break ground this fall with an anticipated opening in late 2014.

Sponsorship opportunities are available and to play in this premier golf outing individual spots are available for $250.
